Borders Choice Homes Specific Need to be in a Community Application Form

Priority for a Specific Need to be in a Community is awarded at Bronze level.

You may qualify for Bronze Priority if:

- You need to move to a specific area to provide or receive care and support
- You are having difficulty accessing essential services

Before applying for a priority in this category please check that your need to be in a community is not covered by one of the other priority. For example if you need to move to a community to receive care and support you can complete a Unified Health Assessment Application.

In order to assess your Specific Need to be in a Community Priority application, please complete form in full.
