

HARASSMENT (inc. ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR (ASB)) APPLICATION FORM

Priority for “Harassment (inc. ASB)” is awarded at Platinum level.

Harassment (inc. ASB) priority is awarded in the following circumstances:

BHA will award Platinum priority to those assessed as experiencing harassment which includes serious anti-social behaviour. There must be documented evidence to support the declaration and will normally be provided by a Local Authority, Registered Social Landlord, Health, Social Work or Police.

Harassment can include:

- Racial
- Religious or sectarian
- Homophobic
- Transphobic
- Harassment of people with autism or learning difficulties or physical disabilities, and
- Sexual

Anti-social behaviour is wide-ranging and BHA staff will make an assessment as to whether the situation is serious enough to warrant priority. It is likely to be awarded when anti-social behaviour procedures have been followed but there is no improvement in behaviour and this is leading to a significant impact on the applicant’s/applicant’s family life.

In order to assess your Harassment (inc. ASB) Priority application, please complete form in full.
